From

Penny S. Oliver, President

I don't know how we (laity) in today's church got the false idea that the preacher is a servant and the folks in the pews (laity, you and I) are just members. No one is a bystander in God's kingdom! All believers are in partnership with the Lord (2 Cor. 6:1). He chose to work through mankind to accomplish the gospel mission on earth. To borrow a biblical metaphor, we are the workers cultivating and harvesting His fields (Matt. 9:37-38).

God gave one or more spiritual gifts to every single believer to aid in the work for His kingdom. We each need this special "wiring" to carry out our unique role in His plan. He knits that spiritual gift into our personality and inborn talents to create a useful and effective servant. And just to be clear, there is no such thing as a non-gifted believer.

Believers are the Lord's workmanship, created in Christ Jesus for the purpose of good works. Spiritual gifts are not our own abilities. The Holy Spirit manifests them through us. Remember, it is the sap running from the vine into the branches that produces fruit (John 15:5). In the same way, the Spirit lives and works through God's followers to bring forth acts of service. The Lord's power is behind it all. Think of that when you are tempted to shy away from God-given opportunities!

God's awesome power is present in and available to every believer. The Holy Spirit equips us to obey the Lord in whatever He calls us. Laity do not waste your life sitting in a pew! Get busy using that spiritual gift. The fields of this world are ripe for harvest (John 4:35). There is much work to be done and it takes both the preacher and the laity to work hand in hand, as partners, to complete the mission of the Church.

We need you! The Western North Carolina Conference Lay Organization 2019 membership drive continues! Membership dues are $6.00 for adults. We encourage each church to report their Lay President's name and membership dues to the Credential/Membership Chair, Sister Shontea Smith, 309 Cherry Grove Street, Durham, NC 27703. This information will be included in the 2019 Annual Conference Lay Night Program.

We, also, encourage you to attend our regular conference lay meeting on March 9, 2019 at Poplar Grove AMEC, 5504 Summit Avenue, Greensboro, NC 27405 at ten o'clock and "May God bless us with the true spirit of Christianity, that we may live together, not as man over man, but Lay persons working with God."

Thank you for your willingness to serve!

February 25, 2019

Greetings, in the Name of the Most High God:

Every year we anticipate scholarship time! The Western North Carolina Conference Lay Organization provided 9 students with scholarships last year and we could not be more proud of them and their accomplishments.

We are asking every church in the conference for a $300 scholarship donation. We are elated about the scholarship awards given last year, but we would love to do more; and in order to do that, we need the support of every local church in the conference. The young adults who have received scholarships from us are change agents on their various campuses, and we are honored to be a part of each of their stories.

Please have a representative from your church Lay Organization in attendance at the WNCC Lay Organization Meeting at Turner’s Chapel A.M.E. Church, Saturday April 13, 2019 at 10 am. If you are unable to attend the Lay meeting monies can be mailed to Bro. Woodrow Winchester at 912 Fairgreen Road, Greensboro, NC 27410.

Also, we ended last year by imploring everyone to S.L.A.P. themselves as it relates to the youth and young adult presence or lack thereof in your local church. It is a new year and it is time once again to Stop, Look around, Assess, and Proceed with a plan for your local young adults. The WNCC young adults will have a SPRING FLING on April 13, 2019 at 1:00 pm at Florence Elementary School (located beside Turner’s Chapel A.M.E. Church) to assess and plan! This would be a great time for all young adults to come to the Lay meeting and attend our “SPRING FLING”. We will have icebreakers, games, FOOD and fun while we get to know one another and assess our current state. Our prayer is at the conclusion of our Spring Fling we will have a plan to not only grow the Lay Organization, but our local churches as well. So, if you would like to engage in this epic adventure and have your opinions heard we urge you to come and join us!

We look forward to seeing you there!

Yours In Christ and Christian Love,

Chancellor's Message: Renaming Administration Building

February 27, 2019

Dear NCCU Students, Faculty, Staff and Alumni:

Today, the North Carolina Central University Board of Trustees voted unanimously to un-name the Clyde R. Hoey Administration Building and rename it to be the Dr. James E. Shepard Administration Building, effective today, February 27, 2019.

At today's Board meeting, NCCU Board Chairman George Hamilton shared the following information on the history of the building's name and the process that preceded this change.

The Clyde R. Hoey Administration Building, dedicated in 1939, has served as a center for many of the administrative units of campus, including the offices of the chancellor, provost, legal affairs and administration and finance. The building was named for former North Carolina Governor Clyde Roark Hoey. During his tenure, which lasted from 1937-1941, the state provided the resources for North Carolina College and other Historically Black Colleges to offer their first graduate courses.

In the years since, North Carolina Central University has grown to become an even more diverse and inclusive campus community attracting students, faculty and staff from various backgrounds. Additionally, the university has remained steeped in the ideals of "Truth and Service" that were set forth by the institution's founder, Dr. James E. Shepard, more than a century ago. The values we have promoted and embraced for more than 108 years, including developing individuals of character and providing exemplary academic training, remain true today not only for our campus community, but also for our partners and community stakeholders.

Along with growth and progress for our university comes the opportunity for reflection and change. With this new lens, the Student Government Association requested the renaming of the Hoey Administration Building. Upon receiving the request, NCCU's Administration initiated a process that engaged the university's constituents and provided both the SGA and the NCCU Alumni Association Inc. with the steps needed to formally rename the building.

A series of forums took place and surveys were distributed to students, faculty, staff and alumni beginning in Spring 2018. The findings were presented to the NCCU Board of Trustees on April 23, 2018.

The following next steps directed by the NCCU Board of Trustees were to:

- Review the documented, official history of Clyde Hoey with the assistance of Professor of History Dr. Jerry Gershenhorn and Coordinator of University Archives Mr. Andre' Vann.
- Research the proper protocol for changing the name of a state-supported institution.
- Research other buildings and structures on campus that may be candidates for name changes.

Chancellor's Message: Renaming Administration Building

On June 26, 2018, Dr. Gershenhorn and Mr. Vann provided the Board of Trustees with Governor Hoey's biography and official history as it related to NCCU. The Board requested to have additional information, as well as suggestions for a name that would strongly reflect the values that are inherent to North Carolina Central University, its founder, its founding principles and the institution's prominence as a regional, national and global hub for intellectual dialogue and academic distinction.

In the months following, SGA and the Alumni Association gathered suggestions for the name and provided them to the Board and respondents overwhelmingly selected the Dr. James E. Shepard Administration Building. Dr. Shepard was a visionary leader who had a tremendous impact on the educational landscape here at NCCU and throughout the country. His central vision focused on training and cultivating moral leadership, which still remains a priority of our institution. Today, when young men and women walk pass the Dr. James E. Shepard Administration Building, it will be a place that honors our founder and stand as a point of pride for generations to come.

Mr. Davanta Parker, NCCU Student Government Association president, stated: "The renaming of the Dr. James E. Shepard Administration Building is monumental in NCCU's history as we move forward in our mission of promoting diversity, and ensuring that our campus is fulfilling the true values of both truth and service. This decision shows that the voice of the student body truly matters and when we speak up we can make significant change."

Mr. Samuel Cooper, NCCU Alumni Association Inc. president, commented: "Today marks the re-shaping of history for NCCU with the renaming of the Dr. James E. Shepard Administration Building. I commend the students of North Carolina Central University for their fortitude in spearheading this effort. We will continue to move forward in encouraging students, alumni and the larger community to execute initiatives that reflect the values of the university."

In Truth and Service,

Johnson O. Akinleye, Ph.D.
Chancellor

Teachable Moment

The Biennial Convention of the Connectional Lay Organization is a working convention. The delegates have very little time for relaxation, entertainment or anything else that is not a part of the scheduled program. No event or project that may conflict or compete with the scheduled program can be authorized.

This 36th Biennial Convention will be held in Seattle, Washington from June 30, 2019 to July 4, 2019.

What are the objectives of the Biennial Convention?

- ⇒ To set policy
- ⇒ discuss & recommend legislation to the general Church, and update the Lay Constitution for the next biennial.
- ⇒ Participate in workshops to understand, promote and guide members of the organization to become better informed about the African Methodist Episcopal Church.
- ⇒ Disseminate information through lectures, discussions and special workshops for leadership training and to stimulate more effective participation in the church and community.
- ⇒ Promote fellowship among church members and leaders to help maintain organizational identity and commitment.
- ⇒ To plan, structure, organize, manage and promote the convention as a public information vehicle to inform, educate and enhance all work among Church members and the public.

The program and activities planned are often changed to conform with the facilities available. These working notes shall form a guide to prevent overlapping of duties and responsibilities.

History of Poplar Grove

African Methodist Episcopal Church

Poplar Grove African Methodist Episcopal Church is a significant factor in the life of the surrounding Community. From its inception in 1882, one hundred thirty six years ago, it has functioned as a “beaconing light” guiding and molding Christian character. Its founding fathers, led by Rev. John E. Green, endowed with great faith, were concerned that a suitable place of worship be provided. It is also significant that these founding fathers established the Poplar Grove Elementary School as a base for providing educational opportunities for the youngsters of the community about the same time, short of twenty years after the Emancipation Proclamation.

The first service for the congregation was held under a brush arbor near a large Poplar Tree; hence, it was called Poplar Grove. The church was later erected near the same site. The first building was modest by some standards, consisting of four windows and one door, but it was a great accomplishment for our founding fathers and the active hardworking congregation. The community could now boast of a school and church, both of which grew and flourished under the able leadership of Rev. Green as school teacher and spiritual leader.

Rev. Green later led the congregation to purchase a burial ground which bears his name today, known as The Green-Hall Cemetery.

Some of the sons of the Poplar Grove Church in the ministry are Bro. Henderson Reid, Bro. John Reid, Bro. Marvin Hayes, Rev. W. H. Morrison, Bro. Clarence Humphrey, Rev. Patricia Hopkins-Washington, Rev. Jason D. Thompson, Rev. Tamara O. Kersey, Minister Jimmy Doggett, Minister JoAlice Doggett Smith, and Rev. Percy T. McIntyre.

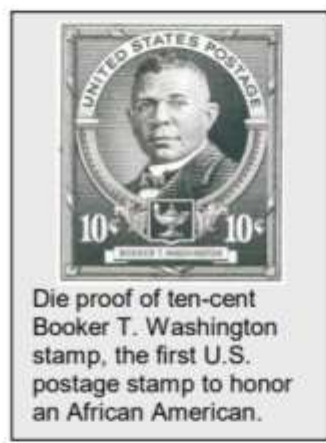

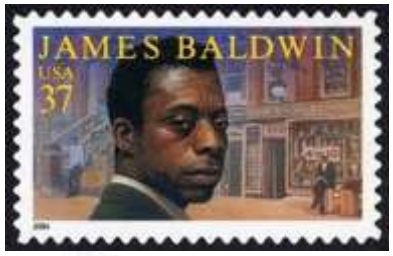

During the pastorate of Rev. E. D. Bailey, the church was destroyed by fire; however, this did not deter the spirit of the few dedicated members. Through united efforts they rebuilt the church on its present site. Yet, after these efforts, the church was again damaged by bombing during the tenure of Rev. M. L. Johnson.

Poplar Grove African American Methodist Episcopal Church is proud of its past. Standing firm on a solid foundation in the present. It looks forward to a future of greater achievements and hopes for continued progressive leadership as it holds fast to its faith in God, bequeathed by its founding fathers.

WE ARE CONTINUING TO MOVE FORWARD IN THE NAME OF JESUS: 136
YEARS OF BEING BUILT ON A SOLID FOUNDATION IN THE PAST, PRESENT AND FUTURE!

DID YOU KNOW?

The first U.S. stamp to honor an African American was the ten-cent Booker T. Washington stamp issued in 1940.

Marvin Gaye

With this new stamp in the Music Icons series, the U.S. Postal Service honors Marvin Gaye (1939–1984) — the “Prince of Soul” — one of the most influential music performers of his generation. The stamp design features a portrait of Gaye inspired by historic photographs. The stamp pane is designed to resemble a vintage 45 rpm record sleeve. One side of the pane includes the stamps, brief text about Gaye’s legacy, and the image of a sliver of a record seeming to peek out the top of the sleeve. Another portrait of Gaye, also inspired by historic photographs, appears on the reverse along with the Music Icons series logo. Art director Derry Noyes designed the stamp pane with original art by Kadir Nelson.

Gregory Hines

The 42nd stamp in the Black Heritage series honors Gregory Hines (1946–2003), whose unique style of tap dancing injected new artistry and excitement into a traditional American form. A versatile performer who danced, acted and sang on Broadway, on television and in movies, Hines developed the entertainment traditions of tap into an art form for a younger generation and is credited with renewing interest in tap during the 1990s. Art director Derry Noyes designed the stamp, which features a 1988 photograph by Jack Mitchell.
