NOVEMBER 2019

ISSUE 11

From the desk of

Penny S. Oliver, President

I will bless the LORD at all times; His praise shall continually be in my mouth. ~ Psalms 34:1 (KJV)

It is so easy to take people for granted, or even to complain and become angry because they do not meet our every wish. But we need to give thanks for those around us—our spouses, our children, our relatives, our friends, our leadership, and others who help us in some way.

In 2018 at our Annual Lay Prayer Breakfast we said “thank you” for their leadership to seven living Western North Carolina Conference Lay Organization Presidents and all seven were present! What an honor to stand with these men and women of wisdom, compassion and love –

- President Gertrude Judd Upperman
- President Woodrow Winchester
- President James W. Hill
- President Ward Miller
- President Mary Dasher McAdams
- President Dwight Patterson

God’s timing is perfect! Who knew that on Wednesday, October 16, 2019, we would celebrate the life of one of our own, President Ward Miller.

Do you let others know that you appreciate them and are thankful for them? The Christians in Corinth were far from perfect, but Paul began his first letter to them by saying, “I always thank God for you” (1 Corinthians 1:4, NIV). When a group of believers (whom Paul had never met) came out to greet him as he approached Rome, we read that “at the sight of these men Paul thanked God and was encouraged” (Acts 28:15, NIV).

Thank God for those who touch your life.

Happy Thanksgiving Day!

A Brief History of Bethel African Methodist Episcopal Church

Greensboro, NC

Bethel African Methodist Episcopal Church, Greensboro, NC, began as Boon Chapel in the post-Civil War era. The Gate City served as the host site for the North Carolina Annual Conference in April 1869. On the 13th a motion to establish a congregation on the east side was passed. Rev. Elisha Boon was tapped to oversee development and serve as pastor.

The founding members of the fledgling charge included Dr. and Mrs. James B. Dudley, Mr. Watson Law, Mr. Yancey Gibson, Mr. Alfred Blount, and Mr. Anderson Ledwell. The original edifice was a wooden structure built in 1874. As the congregation grew, aided by the influence of the African Methodist Episcopal Church, the Western North Carolina Conference was formed in 1892. Rev. Charles H. King was appointed pastor the following year. During his pastorate, property adjoining the church was purchased and the membership voted to erect a new structure, a brick building, of Gothic design featuring stained glass windows and a full basement. Construction was completed in 1894. The current sanctuary contains the spherical stained glass depiction of Christ praying in the Garden Gethsemane, which accentuated the altar of the sanctuary, which was subsequently renamed Bethel.

The congregation membership continued to increase under the leadership of ten (10) itinerant elders. Following the death of Rev. David A. Johnston in 1962, Rev. Leon S. Penn, Sr. was appointed pastor. He presided over what Maude Edwards, secretary of the Steward Board described in her handwritten minutes as a tumultuous period which resulted in a split. According to the official history of the church, "...the alienated members retained the name, Bethel. While trying to resolve their differences the old and new Bethel [congregations] continued services separately..." One group worshipped at Carver Hall on the campus on North Carolina A&T College; the others met at the Seventh Day Adventist Church.

The destructive impact of urban renewal on the East Market Street Corridor in 1964 helped bring about reconciliation. The old church, which was demolished, was sold to the city's redevelopment commission based on an agreement to give the members two adjacent parcels if they agreed to build on the original site.

Rev. Penn led a united flock in a building expansion project, which resulted in the construction of a multipurpose building on the southeast corner of Reagan and Friendly Streets. The project was completed in 1967 and served as both a sanctuary and Fellowship Hall. Rev. Emmanuel G. Terrell, Sr. initiated a series of fundraisers to finance a formal sanctuary as an annex to the multipurpose building. The Right Reverend Henry Wendell Murph, the 86th consecrated bishop of the AME Church, laid the cornerstone. Rev. Terrell officiated at the first service and preached the initial sermon in the new edifice on November 16, 1975. Rev. I. W. Knight, Sr. purchased a new parsonage and the original mortgage on the church was liquidated. His successor, the Rev. Dr. Maurice burned the mortgage on the parsonage. Bethel continues to grow spiritually and numerically under the leadership of Rev. Dr. Clay Barrow, the forty-sixth pastor of this historic congregation, who succeeded Rev. Alphonso E. McGlen in 2019.

Awareness Month
#BeCyberSmart

5 STEPS TO PROTECTING YOUR DIGITAL HOME

More and more of our home devices—including thermostats, door locks, coffee machines, and smoke alarms—are now connected to the Internet. This enables us to control our devices on our smartphones, no matter our location, which in turn can save us time and money while providing convenience and even safety. These advances in technology are innovative and intriguing, however they also pose a new set of security risks. #BeCyberSmart to connect with confidence and protect your digital home.

SIMPLE TIPS TO PROTECT IT.

- Secure your Wi-Fi network. Your home's wireless router is the primary entrance for cybercriminals to access all of your connected devices. Secure your Wi-Fi network and your digital devices by changing the factory-set default password and username. For more information about protecting your home network, check out the National Security Agency's Cybersecurity Information page.
- Double your login protection. Enable multi-factor authentication (MFA) to ensure that the only person who has access to your account is you. Use it for email, banking, social media, and any other service that requires logging in. If MFA is an option, enable it by using a trusted mobile device such as your smartphone, an authenticator app, or a secure token—a small physical device that can hook onto your key ring. Read the Multi-Factor Authentication (MFA) How-to-Guide for more information.
- If you connect, you must protect. Whether it's your computer, smartphone, game device, or other network devices, the best defense is to stay on top of things by updating to the latest security software, web browser, and operating systems. If you have the option to enable automatic updates to defend against the latest risks, turn it on. And, if you're putting something into your device, such as a USB for an external hard drive, make sure your device's security software scans for viruses and malware. Finally, protect your devices with antivirus software and be sure to periodically back up any data that cannot be recreated such as photos or personal documents.
- Keep tabs on your apps. Most connected appliances, toys, and devices are supported by a mobile application. Your mobile device could be filled with suspicious apps running in the background or using default permissions you never realized you approved—gathering your personal information without your knowledge while also putting your identity and privacy at risk. Check your app permissions and use the "rule of least privilege" to delete what you don't need or no longer use. Learn to just say "no" to privilege requests that don't make sense. Only download apps from trusted vendors and sources.
- Never click and tell. Limit what information you post on social media—from personal addresses to where you like to grab coffee. What many people don't realize is that these seemingly random details are all that criminals need to know to target you, your loved ones, and your physical belongings—online and in the real world. Keep Social Security numbers, account numbers, and passwords private, as well as specific information about yourself, such as your full name, address, birthday, and even vacation plans. Disable location services that allow anyone to see where you are—and where you aren't—at any given time. Read the Social Media Cybersecurity Tip Sheet for more information.
