As hard as it is to admit, sometimes I'm easily offended. Ok, I can hear many of you saying, "Oh no she didn't!" It's easy to blame others when we get hurt. But the truth is, we have control over our emotions. God gave us the ability to choose whether we want to feel offended. Much like forgiveness is a choice, not being easily offended is also a choice.

There was a time when I had to make this choice at work. At this time, I looked forward to the company's new hire coming on board. But unfortunately from day one, she made comments toward me that left me feeling ... well, offended.

As a result of both her actions and the way I chose to respond, we frequently butted heads. This caused our team to be less cohesive than it could have been. One day, I learned that the new hire recently had been injured. In the moment, I had to make a decision. Was I willing to extend grace to her despite how I felt I had been treated? The choice was clear. Therefore, a colleague and I scrambled to take care of some of her business matters. We picked up the slack while she recovered. A short while later, my boss asked me why I had helped the new hire, despite the way she treated me and others. I replied to my boss that I behaved the way I had, "because love covers a multitude of sins (1 Peter 4:8)."

My response to the perceived offense, comes from The New Message Bible's interpretation of the 1 Peter texts which explains that love forgives and disregards the offenses of others. Although, I thought that I had every reason to be offended, the Lord pressed upon my heart that I had an opportunity to be kind. As a result, the relationship improved so that things became more professional. I extended grace to her, by treating her how I would want to be treated. I worked hard to let go of the offenses and integrate the words of 1 Peter 4:8 into my life. And it worked!

Jesus's love is reflected through His experience upon the cross. Jesus's love covers a multitude of our sins. We must allow the outpouring of His grace to overflow from us and extend that same measure of grace to those who we encounter in life who offend us. We must choose to turn our, "Oh no she didn't!" into, "Oh yes He did!"

Recently, I had to say, "I am sorry, please forgive me that was not my intentions," again. This was my prayer:

Dear Lord, I'm sorry for how I've offended others. I ask that you reveal to me if there's anyone I need to make peace with. At the same time, show me when and how to let go of offenses against me. Help me learn to be a better parent, sibling, leader, neighbor and friend. When someone offends me, enable me to give that person grace in the same way that you've shown me grace. May I respond in a way that helps my relationships, rather than harm them. In Jesus Name I pray!

UPDATE FROM THE ECONOMIC READINESS TEAM

Historically the African Methodist Episcopal Church engaged in economic development. Throughout the years, this wealth building, began over two centuries ago by our Founder, Bishop Richard Allen served as stepping stones to revenue streams that allowed the AME Church to establish colleges, seminaries, K-12 schools, affordable housing, outreach centers, houses of worship, shopping centers. Revenues from these institutions advanced social justice, supported ministries to the least of these, built hospitals, and created a better future for congregants and the communities we serve.

This same belief is the driving force behind the vision to create innovative funding streams. An Economic Readiness Team (ERT) led by Rev. Dr. Lee P. Washington, explores several creative options to increase cash flow into the District above and beyond assessments paid by our churches. After deliberation the ERT determined the best way to increase our wealth was through purchasing property because property value appreciate and produce income.

Based upon their review and recommendation, we intend to purchase two properties. Monies generated from these purchases will immediately reduce the assessments for 50 churches and another 50 when the second purchase is completed. Our long-term vision is that all churches in the Second District will have their assessments substantially reduced or paid completely. We are in the process of finalizing the contract for the first property and intend to complete purchase of the second within 8 months.

To achieve this goal, we need to raise $1.5 million.

Greetings, in the Name of the Most High God:

Every year we anticipate scholarship time! The Western North Carolina Conference Lay Organization provided 9 students with scholarships last year and we could not be more proud of them and their accomplishments.

We are asking every church in the conference for a $300 scholarship donation. We are elated about the scholarship awards given last year, but we would love to do more; and to do that, we need the support of every local church in the conference. The young adults who have received scholarships from us are change agents on their various campuses, and we are honored to be a part of each of their stories.

Please have a representative from your church Lay Organization in attendance at the WNCC Lay Organization Meeting at Turner’s Chapel A.M.E. Church, Saturday April 13, 2019 at 10 am. If you are unable to attend the Lay meeting, monies can be mailed to Bro. Woodrow Winchester at 912 Fairgreen Road, Greensboro, NC 27410.

Also, we ended last year by imploring everyone to S.L.A.P. themselves as it relates to the youth and young adult presence or lack thereof in your local church. It is a new year and it is time once again to Stop, Look around, Assess, and Proceed with a plan for your local young adults. The WNCC young adults will have a SPRING FLING on April 13, 2019 at 1:00 pm at Florence Elementary School (located beside Turner’s Chapel A.M.E. Church) to assess and plan! This would be a great time for all young adults to come to the Lay meeting and attend our “SPRING FLING”. We will have icebreakers, games, FOOD and fun while we get to know one another and assess our current state. Our prayer is at the conclusion of our Spring Fling we will have a plan to not only grow the Lay Organization, but our local churches as well. So, if you would like to engage in this epic adventure and have your opinions heard we urge you to come and join us!

We look forward to seeing you there!

United States[™]
Census
Bureau

The U.S. Census Bureau is recruiting thousands of people across the country to assist with the 2020 Census count. Earn extra income while helping your community.

How the 2020 Census will invite everyone to respond

Every household will have the option of responding online, by mail, or by phone.

Nearly every household will receive an invitation to participate in the 2020 Census from either a postal worker or a census worker.

 95% of households will receive their census invitation in the mail.

 Almost 5% of households will receive their census invitation when a census taker drops it off. In these areas, the majority of households may not receive mail at their home's physical location (like households that use PO boxes or areas recently affected by natural disasters).

 Less than 1% of households will be counted in person by a census taker, instead of being invited to respond on their own. We do this in very remote areas like parts of northern Maine, remote Alaska, and in select American Indian areas that ask to be counted in person.

Note: We have special procedures to count people who don't live in households, such as students living in university housing or people experiencing homelessness.

History of Turner's Chapel African Methodist Episcopal Church

The first church on the site where Turner's Chapel AME church graveyard is today was built by a Methodist minister named Thomas Barnum and named Barnum's Chapel. Barnum's Chapel was established sometime prior to the start of the Civil War as a place of worship for all denominations.

Sometime later the Barnum Chapel property was purchased by a black congregation, and the first AME church on this site was established. The name was changed from Barnum's Chapel to Turner's Chapel A.M.E This name was chosen in honor of our 12th Bishop Henry Turner.

The first pastor of Turner's Chapel was Reverend J.P. Chalmers. The first trustees were Samuel Pearson, Thomas M. Cole, W.R. Raper, J.W. Joyner and Thomas Fuller. The choir was organized by J.R. Reeder with Henry Jeffers, Fannie Palmer and Lucille Raper as early members.

In 1921, the second Turner's Chapel was constructed, and the pastor was P.H. Holt. The funds necessary for the financing were obtained primarily by W.P. Raper and Carl Charles. These determined and dedicated members had mortgages placed in their own property to finance the new church. This building served the community until 1955.

In 1955, the cornerstone was laid for third and present church under the leadership of Reverend M.L. Johnson. Reverend Johnson served Turner's Chapel for 23 years until 1973.

In 1974, Reverend C.C. Scott, Jr., was named Pastor he served approximately one year. In 1975, Reverend J.L. White pastored Turner's for 5 faithful years. Under his leadership, the church sanctuary was remodeled and the first public address was given. The church got its first central air conditioning system installed. The plans were made to add an educational building and a fellowship hall. Under the leadership of Reverend J.L. White a very dynamic gospel was organized which helped promote and increased in church attendance and membership.

In 1980, Reverend A.M Hall became pastor. He continued working on the plans for the fellowship hall. Under his leadership the first male chorus was formed. Rev. Hall served Turner's Chapel for 5 years. In 1985, under the leadership of Reverend W.H. Morrison's ministry, the first fellowship hall was built. In addition to the fellowship hall, his love of young people helped foster the beginning of a strong youth ministry. Reverend Morrison served faithfully until 1991.

Turner's Chapel History (cont'd)

In May 1991, Reverend William E. Diggs was appointed pastor of Turner's Chapel. He was successful in promoting, spiritual, physical, and financial growth. His rapport with the youth exemplified qualities of a true servant of God. Under his leadership, community and fellowship for churches of all denominations thrived together in Jamestown, High Point, and especially in the Florence community was possible.

Under Reverend W.E. Diggs's leadership the old sanctuary was remodeled with updated seating, lighting, and walls. He even redesigned the pulpit. Several ministries flourished under Reverend Diggs's leadership and the following new ministries were started: Children's church, Singles Ministry, Young Adult Ministry (YAMS), Wednesday night bible study classes for children and youth, and the adult bible study class grew tremendously.

During Reverend William E. Diggs's pastoral service and guidance from the Lord, Turner's Chapel was able to build a new place of worship on the same property in 2008. Reverend Diggs served Turner's Chapel faithfully for 21 years.

In June of 2012, Reverend Michael R. Bowden received his appointment to Turner's Chapel AME Church. Under pastor Bowden's leadership, we expanded our outreach ministry, to just completing the 4th year of feeding 100 families. This outreach ministry was successful with and supplying families with enough food to feed a family of four for 4 days or more at a time. We remodeled the old sanctuary to a fellowship hall, and remodeled the kitchen facilities to accommodate the flourishing growth. Pastor Bowden envisioned the church having a conference room which was constructed in 2016. All this was completely done debt free.

Revered Bowden led Turner's with a powerful spirit filled worship service each Sunday until his passing on February 19, 2019. Today, Presiding Elder Conrad Pridgen, under the direction of our Servant Bishop James L. Davis, is currently the acting pastor of Turner's Chapel A.M.E. Church.

You never know when we will spotlight your Church, so the SOONER you submit your "Hidden Figure(s)" the BETTER!

Easter Versus Resurrection Sunday: The History

For many people of the Christian faith Easter is the most important holiday of the year. It signifies the end of Lent, new beginnings, and the resurrection of Christ. But what do we really know about Easter? Where did the name Easter come from? Why not call it Resurrection Sunday? Why is it on a Sunday?

Easter used to follow the end of Passover by two days regardless of which day of the week it fell on. That means one year it might be Easter Monday, and the next, Easter Thursday. However, everyone wasn't pleased with this. It was determined at The Council of Nicea that Easter would always fall on a Sunday, the day Christ rose, and always after the first full moon following the spring equinox.

It is believed that the name Easter was drawn from the pagan god Eostre (pronounced ee-ster). Every spring the pagans would celebrate this deity with a festival. Eostre was the pagan goddess of spring and fertility and such did the festival and season follow.

Rabbits came about through symbolism. While Peter Rabbit had not yet become a thought, during that time period rabbits were the symbol of fertility and new life, hence the derivation of the Easter Bunny.

In early Christianity the Eostre festival occurred around the same time as the Jewish Passover. In efforts to draw more pagans into Christianity church officials decided to embrace some of pagan customs. Neither the rabbit symbolism, not the name were shunned.

The eggs came about around the thirteenth century. In early Christianity the eggs symbolized fertility and renewal. The yolk was said to represent Christ's emergence from the tomb. Eggs were painted red to represent the blood Christ shed on the cross and thus we have the beginning of the painting eggs tradition. It is likely too that the popularity of eggs was due to their absence during lent. For centuries the church put out a banned foods list during lent, on which, one of the banned items was the egg.

Whether it's being called Resurrection Sunday or Easter Sunday, this is undoubtedly a favorite time of the year. The blending of traditions over thousands of years has created an atmosphere both Christians and non-believers alike can enjoy. The early church's goal was to increase the number of believers, and whether you paint your eggs red, rainbow, or don't paint them at all; whether you attend sunrise service on Easter Sunday, or Easter Sunday is the only service you attend all year, you are undeniably being touched by the kingdom of God.
