VOLUME IV SEPTEMBER 2018 ISSUE 9

Penny S. Oliver, President

Then God Said, "let us make man in our image, in our likeness, and let them rule over the fish of the seas and the birds of the air, over the livestock, over all the earth, and over all the creatures that move along the ground." Genesis 1:26

Since God has given us dominion over everything on the earth, let us, the people of God, rise to the occasion and to take charge of the environments we have influence within. It is time for us to start influencing the environments we are allowed to steward, NOW! God did not create us to be average or cowards. Mediocrity has no room in God's temple. God doesn't want OUR leftovers; God wants OUR BEST! Therefore, we ought to do all things with EXCELLENCE!

Our Biennial theme, "Laity Walking Humbly with God to do Justice and to Love Kindness," supports the scripture texts found in Genesis 1:26. President Valerie Bell reminded us in her letter, "A Call to Action," that "...this is a CALL TO ACTION FOR THE MEMBERS OF THE CONNECTIONAL LAY ORGANIZATION, at all levels of the African Methodist Episcopal Church, to support and participate." She emphasized that, "[o]ur country is in a very dark place now. What is going on daily in Washington, DC turns out more lights in the world. In Puerto Rico, across the southern borders of the United States of America, families are being ripped apart; in Congress some find no way to call the Executive branch of government to order as required by the Constitution; security clearances are being ripped away from some and threats are being made against others; and the leader of the free world has been recorded as telling over 6,000 lies since occupying the White House."

Many of us are not available to travel to Washington, D.C., September 5-6, 2018, to unite with other AME's and people of faith; however, we are available to get people registered to vote and to take people to the poll to vote in order that they may participate in the November 2018 election. We are available to make a difference in our homes, communities and our churches.

We, as laity of the Western North Carolina Conference, must learn to put everything in God's hand and trust the Lord, UNCONDITIONALLY. I encourage those called by God to take up the mantle of authority. The Good News of Jesus Christ demands we take charge of our homes, neighborhoods, communities and the world entrusted to our stewardship by the Creator.

Join us as we petition the Lord at the WNCC-Lay Organization's 11th Annual Prayer Breakfast at St. Matthew's, in Burlington, N.C., September 8, 2018, 10 am. Additionally, we implore you to attend the WNCC-Lay Organization meeting, October 13th, at St. James, Winston-Salem, N.C., 10 am.

Mother Joanna

Joanna Leach, formerly "Joanna Moore", is the last surviving of 9 children of Lugenia Williams Moore and Joseph Moore. She was born on September 29, 1915 in Pittsboro, North Carolina, the town in which she has lived for over 102 years. Joanna was the 5th of the nine children. As a young child, Joanna loved playing tennis, jack rocks, jumping rope and hopscotch with her friends. Though Pittsboro was segregated during this time, Joanna recalls sometimes playing with white children as well as her black friends. She also spent much of her time working when she was not in school.

At a very early age, Joanna dedicated her life to the Lord and joined the Mt. Sinai A.M.E. church family of which she remains a member to this day. Joanna recalls she loved attending Sunday School. She would go to Sunday School at Mt. Sinai in the morning, and then at St. James Episcopal church in the evening. Over her years of faithful service, Joanna was an active member of several organizations, including the Stewardess Board and the Bible Band, where she served as President, the Usher Board of which she was an Officer, the Helping Hand Club which she and others organized, the Mt. Sinai Choir, Busy Bee, Mother of the Church and Leach Educational Fund, a family based organization that provides mentorship, fellowship and even scholarships to college-bound persons in need of assistance.

Joanna had 3 children, Jeanette Marie, Robert Louis and Peggy Ann with her husband, Robert. Her children, grandchildren, great grandchildren and greatgreat grandchildren have benefited from Joanna's commitment to service, education and the Lord. Joanna has proudly travelled to multiple states to attend the college and post-graduation commencement services of her children, grandchildren and great grandchildren.

At 102, Joanna is still blessed to have a sharp mind and wonderful memory.

History of Gaines Chapel African Methodist Episcopal Church

In 1904, several aggressive laypersons began to meet from house to house to discuss building a church in their community. These individuals included two local ministers, Rev. Julious Tate and Rev. Sam Allison. Other participants who joined them in their venture were Mr. Albert Riley, Mr. Sherman Morrow, Mr. Robert Watson, Mr. Cornelius "Babe" Tate, Mr. Arthur McDade and Mr. Robert Megager Enoch. These individuals are considered the founding fathers of Gaines Chapel A.M.E. Church.

Mr. Albert Riley donated the land to the community to build a place of worship. Upon this plot of land, a "Brush Arbor" was erected for worshipping until a sanctuary could be built.

From these pioneers, great works were accomplished, such as purchasing a small "Storehouse" from Mr. D. E. Forrest. The "Storehouse" was moved and restored on the land that was donated by Mr. Albert Riley. With much motivation, determination and aspiration, these founders remodeled the "Storehouse" and added a "Belfry".

After much remodeling and cosmetic furnishings, the church was ready for dedication. From Bishop Gaines ministering and leadership, the church was dedicated and named in his honor, Gaines Chapel African Methodist Episcopal Church. Through prayer, faith, unity and dedication, the church prospered and grew in the following years.

In 1905, the Cornerstone was laid and engraved by Rev. A. J. Corde.

In 1929, Gaines Chapel A.M.E. Church was rebuilt at the present location by Rev. H. L. Thomas and faithful members.

In 1964, under the leadership of Rev. S. G. Thompkins, the church was remodeled.

Due to the four local churches in the surrounding vicinity, the "Efland Circuit" name was created. These churches included Hunter's Chapel, White Cross, Harvey's Chapel and Gaines Chapel. Worship services were held once a month at each church with Gaines Chapel's services being held on the fourth Sunday of each month.

In 1967, the "Efland Circuit" was divided, leaving only two churches, Gaines Chapel and Harvey's Chapel. Worship services were then held on the second and fourth Sundays at Gaines Chapel.

In 1967 to 1982, Gaines Chapel was under the leadership of Rev. Aaron White. In 1968, the church parsonage was purchased. In 1971, the land for Gaines Chapel Memorial Garden was

In 1982, under the leadership of Rev. Henry B. Williams, Sr., Gaines Chapel A.M.E. Church became a "Station Church." During his leadership, the outer appearance of the church was again remodeled with new semi-circled steps and railings, remodeling of the Altar and a public address system was installed. In 1983 and 1984, beautiful stained glass windows and pews were purchased.

In 1986, under the leadership of Rev. L. S. Werts, plans were outlined for the parking lot and a new piano was purchased.

After Rev. Leroy Miller became pastor, the final stages of the parking lot were completed and the discussion of a new project, the replacement of the front doors.

In 1992, Gaines Chapel graciously welcomed Rev. Ralph Stephens as its pastor and again other projects were completed. They included the installation of the new mirrored front doors, re-carpeting of the floors and remodeling the Fellowship Hall. During Rev. Stephen's pastorate, he was called from his labor to reward.

Presiding Elder Tyson L. Coble rendered services along with other ministers he sent until Rev. Charles Blalock was appointed pastor. Under the spiritual leadership of Rev. Blalock. We continued the upkeep of the church, the parking lot and the cemetery.

After Rev. Charles Blalock's pastorate, Rev. Wade Morrison was sent to pastor Gaines Chapel. Under his leadership, the parsonage was remodeled, the Fellowship Hall was redecorated and a new utility house was purchased.

In 2005, Rev. George Cheek continued the legacy of this great church and the initiation and the discussion of the purchase of property surrounding the church.

At the Midyear Conference of October 1, 2009, Gaines Chapel again experienced a change in pastors and Rev. Dr. Barbaretta W. McGill assumed her duties here on Sunday November 1, 2009. She brought new ideas, new hope and untiring energy to continue this legacy. She instituted a music ministry, a food ministry, couple's ministry, newsletter "The Lantern", and making sure that all legal documents were updated. A new furnace was purchased, a new roof, new tables and chairs for the Fellowship Hall, and a bus.

During the 2013 Midyear Conference, Rev. David P. Lowe was appointed pastor of Gaines Chapel Church. A new lighted sign was installed on the church grounds.

We are continuing the great works of our forefathers through this great spiritual leader. As we look around today from 1905 to 2018, 113 years, our ancestors worshipped at the "Brush Arbor," we hold these years of history in these walls. We are the children, children's children continuing this great legacy through the Founding Father's Scholarship funds to help educate our youth, train and guide them through Christian Education, the Missionary Society Young People's Department, Church School, Bible Study, Lay Organization and other programs of the church. We gather between these sacred walls with the spirit and tenacity of our ancestors and the spirit of unconditional love and sacrifice to continue this great legacy.

Hidden Figures Gaines Chapel

Maggie Holman Loftin, born and raised in Efland, N.C., the fourteenth child of fifteen born to the late Alvis and Luza Tate Holman. She attended segregated schools. She was hired as the first teacher's aide for the first Kindergarten in North Carolina at Efland Cheek School. This Kindergarten class was a pilot program initiated by UNC in Chapel Hill, N.C.

After being out of school for twelve years and a teacher's aide for four years, Sister Loftin was encouraged by the teachers and the Superintendent to go to college and get a degree.

She entered North Carolina College in Durham, N. C., now North Carolina Central University earning a B. A. degree in English and Library Science. Later, she pursued post-graduate studies and completed work for a Master's degree in Library Science, May 1975, and further studies in Educational Technology and Instructional Development.

She retired from C. W. Stanford Middle School, Hillsborough, N.C., in June 2000, after 31 years of service.

Sister Loftin believes, "if you set your goals and aim high, it is never too late nor are you too old to pursue an education", because she was in college with

Does your church have members (living or deceased) who have done exemplary things in the community, or who are/were trailblazers in their profession(s)?

Well... the Lay Express want to know who they are, and what they did.

Each month the Lay Express will highlight a church in the Western North Carolina Conference and feature the church's "Hidden Figures"

Just send the individual's name (layperson or clergy), a picture (if available), and a very brief description of your church's "Hidden Figures".

You never know when your church will enter the spotlight, so the SOONER you submit your "Hidden Figure(s)" the BETTER!
